It is not enough to affirm that the new mass is valid. The new mass is bad in itself. It represents an occasion for the sin of unfaithfulness. This is why it cannot constitute a matter of obligation to sanctify Sunday. At a time when Rome recognizes the two rites, it is necessary to remember: "about the new mass, let us immediately destroy this absurd idea: if the new mass is valid, one can participate in it. The Church has always forbidden to attend the Masses of schismatics and heretics, even if they are valid. It is obvious that we cannot participate in sacrilegious Masses, nor in Masses that put our faith in danger". — Father Wathen
